1 That's what I got to say.

2 Q. So you're saying you didn't steal the truck?

3 A. I didn't steal the truck.

4 Q. Did you know the truck was stolen when you took
5 possession of it?

6 A. When I took possession of it, see, I got it
7 from Craigslist, and I traded some marijuana for it.

8 Q. Right.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. That's called a 420 deal.

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And at the time, I didn't know the truck was 14 stolen, and then when I found out it was stolen from the 15 guy, he was working dirty deals, I knew the truck was 16 stolen, point blank, end of story.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. Campos didn't know the truck was stolen. Z2
19 didn't know the truck was stolen. I'm the only one that 20 knew. Okay? I didn't figure that this shit was going
21 to get blown out like it was. I didn't -- I didn't -- I
22 didn't think -- I didn't think this was, and obviously
23 it did. But with that being said, going back to Alcorn
24 and them, basically they were promising me that I'd walk
25 away from this if we put this man in jail and take his

1 Alcorn's like, look, you know, bottom line, you know
2 what we want. You know who we want. You know, he's a
3 POS, piece of shit, he says.

4 Q. Who was he referring to?

5 A. Alfred Campos.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. And he's, like, you know, Alfred Campos is
8 dangerous for us. He's dangerous for you. He doesn't
9 know you have a badge. He's a piece of shit, pretty 10 much telling me, and Tim and -- between the both of 11 them, they're just talking to me and telling me, hey,
12 you know, we -- we can help you get out of this. You've
13 just got to help us, which is pretty much -- pretty much
14 lying about Campos knowing the truck was stolen. He 15 didn't know the truck was stolen. He had no idea the 16 truck was stolen, and this --

17 (Alfred Campos is no longer present.)

18 MR. WILSON: Hold on for a minute. I'm sorry,
19 Mr. Hobin, but my client just walked out and I'm not
20 sure why. Can I have a moment?

21 (Off record.)

22 (Break taken from 8:54 a.m. to 23 8:59 a.m.)

24 MR. WILSON: Could we have a few minutes,
25 please?

1 Alcorn and Tim Tietjen are, like, look, this -- this
2 isn't a good -- this isn't a good thing, you know.
3 You're done. They're telling me you're done, and it's
4 scaring me, you know. I'm like, fuck, you know. I'm
5 done. Like, fuck. What do I do? And Brad Alcorn's
6 just like, look, dude, you -- we got from here until we
7 get downtown, and you need to come up with a statement
8 and you need to incriminate Campos, and he needs to go
9 to jail. They're telling me I can walk away from this
10 and, well, I came up with this fucking -- you know.

11 Q. So what did you tell them?

12 A. Word for word, I don't remember exactly what I
13 told them, but I told them, yeah, you know, me and
14 Campos were buying -- actually, I didn't say that. I
15 said I sold him the truck. That's it. He knew it was 16 stolen, but as far as the Mexico -- taking trucks to 17 Mexico, I never said that. As far as me admitting the 18 truck -- I knew -- me saying I stole the truck, I did
19 not steal the fucking truck.

20 Q. Okay. Well, let's break this up.

21 You acquired this truck from somebody.

22 A. Yes, but what -- what I'm getting to is they
23 even fabricated a little bit of my -- my statement by 24 saying that I knew the truck was stolen. Wait. I
25 didn't mean to say that, but I -- I stole the truck.
